

Zinaida Vasilenko, Regional Investment Officer
PlaNIS responsAbility

Experience:

Zinaida Vasilenko has worked with PlaNIS responsAbility since September 2008, first as Junior Investment Analyst and then as Regional Investment Officer for former Soviet countries.

She is responsible for transactions origination which includes conducting on-site due-diligence visits of financial institutions and processing loans as well as for carrying out risk analysis, portfolio monitoring and country/market risks evaluation.

Her previous professional experience covered country risk analysis and research in the field of international economic relations within the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Russia.

Expertise:

Zinaida Vasilenko holds a Double Master Degree in Finance and International Business from the Centre for Political Studies (IEP – Institut d'Etudes Politiques de Paris) and Moscow Institute of International Relations (Degree in Political Economy) and a Degree in International Relations of Voronezh State University (Russia).